This brilliant Big Art Project in the form of the Open University’s letters is the result of OpenUnlimited activities in the Church on Saturday 27th June 2009.

The theme for the project was "What does the OU mean to you?". It was very popular as children and adults edxpressed themselves freeley, by sticking things, adding glitter or drawing with pens and paints to decorate the letters, and as you can see, they did a fantastic job.

Estates Fabrics Team constructed these massive letters from 6ft sheets of plywood, added a matt coat of colour and then once our artists had finished adding a coat of varnish and...
