Finding CC Licensed Materials

Practical Activity

Example 1: CC Search: <http://search.creativecommons.org/>

The screenshot shows the Creative Commons Search website. At the top is a green navigation bar with the Creative Commons logo, a 'Home' link, and menu items for 'About', 'Licenses', 'Public Domain', 'Support CC', 'Projects', and 'News'. On the right side of the bar is a 'Site Search' button with a magnifying glass icon. Below the navigation bar is a large green search box with the text 'Enter your search query'. To the left of the search box is a green button with the 'CC Search' logo and the text 'Find content you can share, use and remix'. Below the search box are two checkboxes: 'I want something that I can...' with a checked box for 'use for commercial purposes;' and another checked box for 'modify, adapt, or build upon.'. Below this is the 'Search using:' section, which contains a grid of search engine options. The 'Flickr' option is highlighted in light blue. The options are: Europeanana (Media), Flickr (Image), Fotopedia (Image), Google (Web), Google Images (Image), Jamendo (Music), Open Clip Art Library (Image), SpinXpress (Media), Wikimedia Commons (Media), YouTube (Video), Pixabay (Image), ccMixer (Music), and SoundCloud (Music).

Example 2: YouTube: <http://youtube.com/>

The screenshot shows a YouTube search results page for the query "ljubljana". The search bar at the top contains the text "ljubljana" and a search icon. Below the search bar, the page displays "About 329,000 results".

On the left side, there is a navigation menu with the following options:

- What To Watch
- BEST OF YOUTUBE
 - Popular on YouTube
 - Music
 - Sport
 - Gaming
- Browse channels

Below the navigation menu, there is a sign-in prompt: "Sign in now to see your channels and recommendations!" with a "Sign In" button.

The main content area features a filter dropdown menu and a table of filter options:

Upload Date	Result Type	Duration	Features	Sort by

Courses

An OpenCourseWare(OCW) is a free and open digital publication of high quality educational materials for colleges and universities. These materials are organized as courses, and often include course planning materials and evaluation tools as well as thematic content.

Search

We are currently tracking 25081 courses from 78 providers.

Practical Activity

- Find 3 examples of CC licensed works (photos, videos, presentations, courses) on a specific topic
- Identify the license terms
- Define what you can do with the materials – how can you use them in educational settings
- Discuss any limitations or frustrations
